Artist Van Duong Thanh

www.vanduongthanh.com

Well known as one of Asia's talented international female artist, Van Duong Thanh grew up in Hanoi and studied for twelve years at l'Ecole de Beaux Arts, Indochine and at the Academy of Fine Arts. She researched at the Institute of Culture in Hanoi from 1981 to 1987. She now divides her time between Sweden, where she teaches art, and Hanoi. Van Duong Thanh's works were added by the Vietnamese National Museum of Art to its collection for the first time when she was 20. Since then, many of her exquisite artworks are on permanent display in National Museum of Art in several countries including Vietnam, Thailand, Singapore, Hong Kong, Spain, and Sweden. Van Duong Thanh received, among other awards, the highly regarded "International Excellence of Art of CFMI", USA – France 1995 and 1997, and "Glory of the Nation" 2007. President Jimmy Carter, Mrs. Ginburg, Judge of the US Supreme Court also have selected her paintings, Van Duong Thanh's paintings are always put up to auction in Charity program by international organizations.

Van Duong Thanh received, among other awards, the highly regarded "International Excellence of Art of CFMI", USA – France 1995 and 1997, and "Glory of the Nation" 2007.

Sunflowers of Hanoi
Oil/Acrylic 60x50

Sense of Hanoi Autumn
Oil/Acrylic 70x50

Email: art@vanduongthanh.com Website: www.vanduongthanh.com Tel: 0084982993790